Happy Birthday Angel Hitler

by Lorenz Kraus

Angel Hitler's 129th birthday is today. It is our feast day. Feast on these truths.

What did Hitler want? Hitler wanted a German-serving government to protect blood-Germans on traditional German soil.

Hitler is a simple man to understand.

Hitler EVICTED Poland from German soil and repossessed what was rightfully hers.

He thwarted the Soviet Union's planned invasion and conquest of Europe; otherwise, we would all be 'speaking' communism.

Hitler knew Jews CAUSE communism, which is the slavery of mankind to Jews. He led the slave revolt to save the Volk. A true Volksaver. To stop communism you have to stop the Jews. Hitler is the world's true anti-communist. No one has done more to fight communism. Imagine the best years of your life suffocated by Soviets under a 45 year prison occupation sentence, which was the case for Eastern Europeans. Hitler tried to stop these and all subsequent crimes of communism.

National Socialism—“The Optimal Defiance”

by Henrik Pihlström

INTERVIEW. “For as long as we can, we should call ourselves National Socialists,” explains Fredrik Vejdeland.

Around the country, members of the Nordic Resistance Movement are being provided with internal lectures from the organisation’s national leadership. As the Movement’s leader Simon Lindberg stated in a previous interview:

We must ensure that our members not only increase in number but that they also attain a certain standard so that the organisation is strengthened proportionally with the growth in membership. An important aspect of this is ideological training and education.

In recent months, several such lectures have been held in Dalarna. Jimmy Thunlind explained how the Emperor Has No Clothes and how society has become as dishonest as that in HC Andersen’s fairytale. Simon Lindberg spoke at another meeting about self-improvement and the potential which can blossom from a person as a result of the right will and motivation.

Most recently, Fredrik Vejdeland held a talk focussing on the subject of National Socialism from a new perspective. He explained the advantages of the National Socialist ideology and how it fares in modern society.

In contrast to other nationalist-minded individuals, who reason that National Socialism is tainted and should be forgotten, Fredrik explained that National Socialism in fact constitutes the optimal defiance against the current system. National Socialism is the antithesis to modern society’s destructive thought patterns.

Fredrik Vejdeland visited Dalarna: “Nationalism is a dead end. It can yield fast success, but it will not ultimately save us from destruction.”

By putting forward five key arguments for National Socialism, Fredrik emphasises various positive aspects of the ideology. National Socialism gives us proper guidance, unlike other empty alternatives. It contributes to organiza-

Nevertheless, the world is better off that the Angel Hitler gave the world everlasting knowledge of the biological and existential threat of mankind's veritable demonic enemy.

Your enemy is not your equal. He has no political rights. A ruthless leader denies Jews the chance to influence your system. You must ban the Jew to defeat the Jew. You don't debate Jews. Your existence is not up for debate. Hitler took action against Jews. Action is effective. Hitler didn't stand athwart history and cry, "stop, stop it!" He was not a feckless William F. Buckley conservative... a Limbaugh ditto head, getting picked on at the playground. He rallied a manly fight for Europe's existence.

Hitler evicted Jews from Europe; they had no right to be there, in the first place.

Hitler did nothing wrong.

Hitler did not fall for the false song of inclusion.

"Goy, please goy, love your enemies. Love me. Diversity is your strength."

"Let me manage your money, goy! I'm good with money."

"Let me train your police, goy! I'm good at fighting terrorism."

"Let me make your laws, goy! I'm good with the law."

"Let me teach your children their values, goy. I'm am the light of the world, goy."

"Goy, here is my 1000-page book to talk you out of your folk wisdom. Celebrate me as a world class genius and prophet of the age!"

"Goy, Jesus gave (((Peter))) the keys to heaven. Whose your god now, goy?"

"I can't believe the goy bought my shit... AGAIN!"

The worst event in Europe's history was the emancipation of the Jews. Once Jews gained equality, they demanded communism. They sought the slavery of the indigenous people who gave them human rights which they never deserved. The holocaust is nothing more than when Jews lost control over Europe during the all-too-short Hitler period. Hitler was merely restoring the old order, when Jews were in the ghetto, to Europe for Europe's sake. Hitler was putting the demons back into the genie bottle.

The eviction of Jews from Europe was a great thing that all politicians should aspire to. Hitler was a better European than the traitors running the European Union today... and everyone knows it. Europe needs an SS and the eurocrat-cucks prove it.

Everyday, more people understand that Hitler, warts and all, was an angel and a necessity; that if there is to be a Europe in 20 years, we need a million more Hitlers to finish the job. Exclusion is the answer.

Hitler restored German sovereignty. He restored self-determination to the German people, which was the alleged aim of World War One, yet denied to Germans. "Make the world safe for democracy," cried Wilson. Germans elected Hitler. What's the problem?

The vulture empires couldn't stand nationalism anywhere. No empire can stand nationalism. Hitler conquered world empires with the intuitive truth of blood nationalism, a feat never to be repeated again. This is why Hitler is a hero across the world. Hitler is the voice of a generation and the voice nature. How could the word of nature, and nature's presumed god, be wrong?

National Socialism is common sense Germanic folk wisdom. Hitler is the avatar of that folk wisdom. Hitler will never go out of style.

Nationalism is necessary, righteous, and beautiful.

Nationalism didn't kill anyone wrongfully in WWII; Jewish imperialism did. The vulture empires didn't want peace. Jews wanted to turn Europeans into debt-slaves or slaves of the gulag. Their vulture empires were fully responsible for the war. Jews are responsible for all the death of WWII. Morally, self-defense is fully exculpatory. Hitler did nothing wrong. Literally.

Israel's Zionism depends on the evil of everyone else's nationalism. Jewish imperialism goes against the natural order.

The axiom of a living Europe is that nothing truly counts besides its own existence. Jews have no standing. There is no debating Europe's existence. The opinions of Jews have no meaning to us. Sweep them aside. We live our own story. We evict without mercy.

Nothing of Europe can be held against its existence. Nothing German can be held against Germans.

You can't blame natives for fighting off an invasive species. Germans are the natives of Europe. Jews are the infiltrators. Case closed. The lion has to do what the lion has to do. Jews gave the world collective punishment. They only understand and respect collective punishment. Hitler gave the Jews what they dished out to everyone else. That works.

Jews don't laugh at Hitler because Hitler was an angel.

Next time, they rest of us won't be.

"May National Socialism be to the world, what I believe it will be, (to some parts sooner, to others later, but finally to all,) the signal arousing men to burst their chains under which Jewish lies had persuaded them to bind themselves, and to assume the blessings of their sovereign Volk." What Jefferson could have said, and what Americans will say, before it's too late.

tional stability. It possesses a warrior spirit without equal. It is a concrete ideology, unlike hard-to-define nationalist alternatives. And it has a strategically sustainable approach.

National Socialism represents the ultimate defiance and creates idealistic people who cannot be bought by the system. It is honourable and attracts brave men and women who are ready to fight. In response to my question as to the main thing we should take from the lecture, Fredrik said: “As long as we can, we should call ourselves National Socialists.”

Fredrik Vejdeland together with activists from Dalarna’s Nest 5

After Fredrik’s speech, I asked him a few questions, during which he promised to return to this subject in a future publication.

When did you first have the idea of holding a speech on National Socialism?

I have held speeches on National Socialism before and have also published a booklet on our world view. But the specific issues in this particular speech are ones I have thought about over the last few years.

Are there any aspects relating to National Socialism which aren’t generally discussed that you wanted to analyse in your speech?

Yes. We have already published a great many good articles, pamphlets and books on the subject. My recommendations are the Nordic Resistance Movement’s activist handbook, our political programme and the 20-year anniversary book. These explain the National Socialist ideology in broad strokes.

What I think is missing is a more argumentative publication that explains National Socialism’s role in modern times and in the struggle. Why do we even call ourselves National Socialists when our ideology is viewed as being so tainted? Is it because of some fixed idea, pure stubbornness, or perhaps even stupidity? Or are there strategic as well as moralistic reasons for our choice? We are well acquainted with the disadvantages of professing an ideology which the system has branded as pure evil, but what are the advantages for an organization that is motivated by and driven forward by this ideology? And which additional advantages will a National Socialist organization have further into the future?

This speech is directed at those who are already National Socialists, but it also gives many answers to other nationalists who have not yet understood what our strategy is. My plan is that this speech – which I will give several times – will eventually result in a physical publication.

Do you see any problems with people contenting themselves with just being “regular nationalists”, even if they don’t take an active stance against National Socialism?

Nationalism is a dead end. It can yield fast success, but it will not ultimately save us from destruction. Nationalism lacks an intrinsic strength and offers no real alternative to the ruling system and its ideology. There can be brave and self-sacrificing individuals in a nationalist organization, but a nationalist organization in itself does not create fighters who are prepared to sacrifice everything for a higher cause.

I have no problem at all with other nationalists, as long as they do not take an active stance against National Socialism. It is not we National Socialists, or for that matter the ethnonationalists or identitarians, who have power in society and are destroying our people. I believe nationalists should always stick together against the external enemy. Those who take the system’s side against another nationalist group or

How do you think the ideology of National Socialism is doing compared to other competing nationalistic ideologies or newly invented isms?

In Sweden and the Nordics, we are definitely competitive. There is a lot of focus on the Nordic Resistance Movement from abroad, which is extremely positive and bodes well for the future. To take an example of how we’re doing here in Sweden, it’s a fact that we, a National Socialist organization, dominate alternative media in the nationalist scene, both in the number of “consumers” and successful projects. We still have the biggest demonstrations, even under the most difficult conditions, and our core of brave and self-sacrificing activists is steadily growing. So it’s not going so badly for the National Socialist struggle in Sweden.

At what age did you develop your political convictions? Did you have other political opinions before you became a National Socialist?

It’s difficult to say exactly. I became a nationalist sometime in high school and National Socialist sometime in senior high school. During the years leading to my real awakening, I was involved in some Leftist circles, without getting snared by Marxism.

I was like all the others. I saw National Socialism as pure evil, and as such I resisted it for several years. But when I really understood National Socialism, it was like I understood how the whole world was structured and what was important in life – important enough to sacrifice everything for. Since then I have only become more convinced that National Socialism is the only cure for a sick world. The National Socialist conviction is what has kept me going through all these years and filled me with motivation during hard times.

Activist Days in Norway and Denmark

RESISTANCE MOVEMENT. During the first weekend of June, both the Norwegian and Danish branches of the Nordic Resistance Movement held their Activist Days events for 2019. Here follows a combined report from both countries.

The tagline for Denmark's Activist Days was "Progress, Success and Optimization". It included speeches by four speakers. Leader of the branch Martin Durvad spoke about the past year and the future of the struggle in Denmark. Nest Chief Kristian Niss held a motivational speech on the necessity of a strong state, while two debut speakers, Peter Bak and Viktor Clausen, spoke about National Socialism as the natural order, and youth, identity and mental illness, respectively.

Norway's Activist Days was held under the slogan "Taking the Struggle to a New Level". The Chief Editor of Frihetskamp.net, Martin Oppegaard, held a speech and Q&A on IT security, while Sweden's Jimmy Thunlind gave an optimistic and inspiring talk which drew parallels between today's National Socialist struggle and that of 1930s Germany.

New activists were appointed, and prizes were distributed to two outstanding activists for their immense efforts within the organization over the last year. The attendees also participated in martial arts training, archery and axe throwing.

The Norwegian National Leadership, headed by Haakon Forwald, gave a briefing and announced that going forwards the Norwegian branch will be focusing more on internal development, such as outdoor activities and lectures, with the aim of creating a better balance with outward-facing operations. This mirrors the announcement made regarding activities in Sweden during January's Activist Days in Dalarna. The leadership also stated that Frihetskamp.net will now focus more on news and less on the Resistance Movement. News about the Movement will instead be published on Motstandsbevegelsen.org.
